

Read the text below put the words below in the appropriate gaps.

RUMINATE DISFAVOUR STOLID PRECIPITANT LUXURIANT RIME INCITE

The Poet of Elderglen

In the quiet town of Elderglen, there lived a poet whose verses were renowned for their intricate 1._____. His words had the power to 2._____ deep emotions and thoughtful reflection in those who read them. However, the poet was not always well-liked by the townsfolk. His 3._____ demeanor often left him in 4._____ among the more lively residents.

Despite his outward stoicism, he would often 5._____ on the complexities of life, pondering deeply about the human condition. His writings were 6._____, always aiming to tell the truth, no matter how harsh it might be. He believed that honesty in poetry was crucial, even if it sometimes made his work less popular.

One evening, in a 7._____ decision, he sat by his window, watching the 8._____ garden outside. The garden, with its abundant greenery and vibrant flowers, inspired him to write a poem about the resilience of nature. His words, once again, wove a tale that was both beautiful and thought-provoking, capturing the essence of the storm and the garden's enduring beauty.

As the storm passed and the first rays of sunlight pierced through the clouds, the poet finished his poem with a sense of fulfillment. He knew that his words, whether widely appreciated or not, held a deeper truth that resonated with those willing to look beyond the surface. And in that quiet moment, he found peace in his solitary journey as a poet.

ODPOWIEDZI

1. RIME - rym
2. INCITE - podburzać, wzniecać
3. STOLID - flegmatyczny
4. DISFAVOUR - nieprzychylność
5. RUMINATE - rozmyślać
6. VERACIOUS - wiarygodny, prawdomówny
7. PRECIPITANT - bardzo szybki, pośpieszny
8. LUXURIANT - bujny, piękny