

Use the word given in capitals at the end of some lines to form a word that fits in the gap.

The Importance of Emotional Support

In times of stress or difficulty, having a strong support network can make a huge 1. _____. Emotional support involves not DIFFER only listening and offering advice but also showing empathy and 2. _____. People who receive consistent emotional UNDERSTAND support tend to be more 3. _____ and capable of dealing RESILIENCE with life's challenges.

Studies have shown that people with strong emotional connections experience lower levels of 4. _____ and stress, ANXIOUS and even enjoy better physical health. Knowing that someone truly cares about their well-being can provide individuals with a sense of 5. _____ and help them feel more positive and SECURE 6. _____ to take on new challenges. MOTIVATE

However, providing emotional support is not always easy. It requires a level of 7. _____ and the ability to put others' SELF needs before one's own. Those who excel in offering support often possess strong 8. _____ skills and are comfortable COMMUNICATE expressing empathy.

In addition to friends and family, there are also professional resources available. Therapists and counselors are trained to offer 9. _____ and support, particularly during times of GUIDE intense emotion or grief. By reaching out for help, individuals can develop a 10. _____ sense of perseverance and well- STRONG being, enabling them to face challenges with greater confidence.

Odpowiedzi

1. difference - “różnica
2. understanding - “zrozumienie”
3. resilient - “wytrzymały”
4. anxiety - “niepokój”
5. security - “bezpieczeństwo”
6. motivated - “zmotywowany”
7. selflessness - “bezinteresowność”
8. communication - “komunikacja”
9. guidance - “porada”
10. stronger - “silniejszy”, “mocniejszy”