

KOLOKACJE Z ROMANTASY

PART I

You're reading a scene from a romantasy novel. The paragraph is missing 10 key expressions that describe movement, emotion, or action. Each blank corresponds to one of the collocations below, but they've been scrambled and you'll need to choose wisely.

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. drew her dagger | 6. flicker of rage |
| 2. pulled the tapestry aside | 7. wrapped around her |
| 3. tore his eyes away | 8. etched into her memory |
| 4. scared the hell out of me | 9. lurking in the shadows |
| 5. couldn't shake the chill | 10. slithered down her spine |

What Just Happened in the Shadows?

Something was (1) _____, she could feel it. She pressed her back against the cold stone wall, the fabric of her cloak (2) _____ as she tried to steady her breath. A flicker of movement, a glint of steel. She (3) _____ without thinking, the blade cold and familiar in her hand.

He stepped into view, golden eyes glinting. A (4) _____ crossed his face as he scanned her from head to toe.

She didn't lower her weapon. The memory of their last encounter was still (5) _____, and her muscles tensed despite herself.

He stopped, then (6) _____ and revealed a rolled-up scroll, not a weapon.

"You've changed," he said finally.

"I had to," she replied. "You (7) _____ me last time. I won't let that happen again."

He didn't move. Didn't blink. For a heartbeat too long, he just watched her... until he (8) _____, clearly struggling with himself. She stood still. Waiting.

"I should take you in," he muttered, stepping closer.

She didn't answer. But no matter how hard she tried, she (9) _____. And when he was close enough to reach her, a shiver (10) _____.

KOLOKACJE Z ROMANTASY

PART II

Below is a single scene told in ten numbered sentences. Each phrase in brackets must be replaced with one of the collocations from the list.

Use every collocation exactly once and make sure the story still flows logically.

- | | |
|----------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. stormed out of the room | 6. kept his mouth shut |
| 2. traced a symbol | 7. fulfilling his obligation |
| 3. kicked him in the ribs | 8. dropped to his knees |
| 4. parried and deflected | 9. gritted his teeth |
| 5. rattling the glasses | 10. brushed her fingers |

Nightfall in the Glass Hall

1. The captain eyed the council but [said nothing, keeping every opinion to himself].
2. A trainee lunged; the captain pivoted, steel flashing as he [blocked and redirected the blow].
3. Without waiting for permission, the furious advisor [left the chamber in a furious rush].
4. The prince signed the decree, [doing the duty expected of him] even though doubt flickered in his eyes.
5. Hearing the news, the king [clenched his jaw hard in frustration].
6. In the dust on the marble floor, the mage softly [drew an arcane mark with her fingertip].
7. A tremor shook the banquet table, [making the crystalware clink together].
8. Realising the spell had worked, the nobleman gasped and [collapsed, overcome by emotion].
9. The assassin spun, boot connecting as she [struck his torso with a sharp kick] before he could recover.
10. As a final farewell, she [lightly skimmed the back of his hand] and vanished into the corridor.

KOLOKACJE Z ROMANTASY

PART III

Complete the story below using the correct collocations from the list. You may need to change the form of the verbs.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. dead end alley | 6. monstrous style |
| 2. take out the blades | 7. begging for mercy |
| 3. grip the arms of the chair | 8. make her pay |
| 4. run a thumb over | 9. pulse with each heartbeat |
| 5. melt in and out of shadows | 10. brand into the mind |

She sat in complete silence, trying to steady her breath as she slowly began to (1) _____, her knuckles white with tension. There was no mistaking it now - the massacre had been executed in a (2) _____ that didn't match any known signature. The bodies, the silence, the smell - it was too deliberate. Too brutal.

The hallway was narrow and the air thick. Her ears rang as if her own veins began to (3) _____. She slipped through the misted corridors like a whisper, learning to (4) _____, the way she had once seen the Shadowsingers do during training.

When she entered the main chamber, she didn't hesitate. She reached behind her back to (5) _____, polished and lethal.

The man before her smirked, but she knew she'd (6) _____ before the night was over. "You remember this room?" he asked. "Everything that happened here?" She didn't answer. Of course she remembered. Every broken promise had been (7) _____.

With a slow breath, she approached the throne and (8) _____ the armrest, as if drawing strength from the leather itself.

Too late, she noticed the layout - no exits. It was a (9) _____ and he had known it all along. But she wouldn't leave without a fight. She'd have him (10) _____, just like the others before him.

ODPOWIEDZI

PART I

1. lurking in the shadows /'lɜ:kɪŋ ɪn ðə 'ʃædəʊz/ czająca się w cieniach
2. wrapped around her /ræpt ə'raʊnd hɜ:/ owinięty wokół niej
3. drew her dagger /druː hɜ 'dægə/ dobyła sztyletu
4. flicker of rage /'flɪkər əv reɪdʒ/ błysk wściekłości
5. etched into her memory /etʃt 'ɪntuː hɜ 'meməri/ wyryty w jej pamięci
6. pulled the tapestry aside /pʊld ðə 'tæpɪstri ə'saɪd/ odsunął gobelin
7. scared the hell out of me /'skeəd ðə hɛl 'aʊt/ przestraszyć kogoś na śmierć
8. tore his eyes away /tɔː hɪz aɪz ə'weɪ/ oderwał wzrok
9. couldn't shake the chill /'kʊdnt ʃeɪk ðə tʃɪl/ nie móc pozbyć się dreszczy
10. slithered down her spine /'slɪðəd daʊn hɜ 'spɪn/ przeszedł wzdłuż kręgosłupa

PART II

1. kept his mouth shut /kept hɪz maʊθ ʃʌt/ trzymał język za zębami
2. parried and deflected /'pæriəd ənd dɪ'flektɪd/ sparował i odbił (cios)
3. stormed out of the room /stɔːmd aʊt əv ðə ruːm/ wybiegła z pokoju
4. fulfilling his obligation /fʊl'fɪlɪŋ hɪz ɒblɪ'geɪʃən/ wypełniając swój obowiązek
5. gritted his teeth /'grɪtɪd hɪz tiːθ/ zacisnął zęby
6. traced a symbol /treɪst ə 'sɪmbəl/ narysowała symbol (palcem)
7. rattling the glasses /'rætɪŋ ðə 'glɑːsɪz/ brzękając szklankami
8. dropped to his knees /drɒpt tuː hɪz niːz/ padł na kolana
9. kicked him in the ribs /kɪkt hɪm ɪn ðə rɪbz/ kopnęła go w żebra
10. brushed her fingers /brʌʃt hɜ 'fɪŋgəz/ musnęła palcami

PART III

1. grip the arms of the chair /grɪp ði ɑːmz əv ðə tʃeə/ zacisnąć dłonie na poręczach krzesła
2. monstrous style /'mɒnstrəs staɪl/ potworny styl (np. działania)
3. pulse with each heartbeat /pʊls wɪð iːtʃ 'hɑːtbiːt/ pulsować z każdym uderzeniem serca
4. melt in and out of shadows /mɛlt ɪn ənd aʊt əv 'ʃædəʊz/ zlewać się z cieniami, poruszać się niezauważenie
5. take out the blades /teɪk aʊt ðə bleɪdz/ wyciągnąć ostrza (broń)
6. make her pay /meɪk hɜ peɪ/ zemścić się na niej, sprawić, by zapłaciła
7. brand into the mind /brænd 'ɪntuː ðə maɪnd/ wyryć się w pamięci
8. ran a thumb over /rʌn ə θʌm 'əʊvə/ przejechać kciukiem po czymś
9. dead end alley /dɛd ɛnd 'æli/ ślepa uliczka
10. begging for mercy /hæv 'sʌmʌn 'bɛɡɪŋ fə 'mɜːsi/ sprawić, że ktoś będzie błagać o litość